

EVERY CHRISTIAN IS A COUNSELOR

Family conflict, drug addiction, anxiety, abuse, rebellious kids, depression, pornography, cancer, and suicidal thoughts – everyday people around you are hurting.

You want to help, but how?

Many Christians will avoid these meaningful conversations because they feel unequipped to help with the difficult problems people face in life. This should not be so.

Every Christian is called to be a counselor. Every Christian knows someone in spiritual need, someone who lacks kingdom direction, or someone who needs to understand the grace of Christ.

At ACBC we are committed to providing you with a biblically grounded process of training to offer wise counsel. Your first step in training is our Counseling Discipleship Conference.

“I have seen our church transformed in its understanding of careful biblical counseling which is another way of saying, “applied discipleship.” A significant tool in this journey has been ACBC, especially their counseling-discipleship-training (CDT). I highly recommend these intense and practical weekends to every church member, pastor, or church leader.”

- Paul Lamey, Pastor
